Covid vaccination drive for frontline workers to commence in state today

EXPRESSNEWS SERVICE

AHMEDABAD, RAJKOT, VADODARA, SURAT, JAN 30

FOLLOWING A communication from the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare on January 29 to commence the second phase of Covid-19 vaccination, Gujarat will begin the inoculation drive for its frontline workers, including policemen, from Sunday with a target to cover 75,000 beneficiaries in a single day.

State immunisation officer Nayan Jani Saturday said "no healthcare worker will be vaccinated on Sunday", instead frontline workers, including officials from revenue department, home department and urban development department, will get the first jab.

More than three lakh frontline workers have been registered as beneficiaries across Gujarat, Jani said. Earlier, data provided by the health department had estimated the figure to be around 6.93 lakh.

On Sunday, the state immunisation officer said, the focus will remain on oral polio drive as well as frontline workers. Oral polio drive is expected to be held across an estimated 35,000 booths with nearly 1.5 lakh workers. He added that 75,000 frontline workers will also be vaccinated for Covid-19 at district, government and private hospitals. A plan on conducting parallel vaccination of the first priority group of health workers as well as the second priority group simultaneously starting Tuesday, however, remains to be chalked, Jani added.

The polio drive is estimated to continue at least till Tuesday.

Ahmedabad

Nearly 26,000 health workers have been inoculated in the areas under Ahmedabad Municipal Corporation (AMC), a health department official. Another 24,000 remains to be vaccinated.

The official said from Sunday the Covid-19 vaccination of frontline workers will be conducted at hospitals, while urban health centres will be used for the polio drive.

Around 10,000 healthcare workers will be deployed for the polio drive in the AMC jurisdiction. "Currently, UHC staff as well as UHC will be deployed for the polio drive. Till now, we would conduct Covid-19 vaccination at UHCs along with hospitals, taking our total sites to around 130-140, but now Covid-19 vaccination will go on at almost all hospitals in the city. We are targeting to vaccinate approximately 10,000 frontline workers Sunday. AMC has registered an estimated 47,000 frontline workers," the official said.

Rajkot

The second priority group's vaccination drive will start from Sunday and will go on for three days. "We are launching the second phase vaccination drive from Sunday. All the employees and workers of the Rajkot Municipal Corporation, city police and employees of other departments would be covered in this phase. I will take the first jab at a session at the RMC headquarters," Rajkot municipal commissioner Udit Agrawal said.

Officers of civic body's health department said besides 8,000 employees of the RMC, around 3,000 frontline workers from other departments have been listed as beneficiaries for the second phase of vaccination.

While Sunday is scheduled for polio immunisation exercise, RMC officers said they have made elaborate plans to ensure both the drives went on smoothly.

Agrawal, meanwhile, said against the target of vaccinating around 13,000 health workers in the first phase of Covid-19 vaccination drive, around 8,000 were vaccinated till Saturday.

Vadodara

A total of 7,000 people will receive Covid-19 vaccine across 35 centres in Vadodara Sunday, including municipal commissioner and the commissioner of police.

Dr Devesh Patel, the medical officer (health) Vadodara, said the VMC is aiming to achieve 100 per cent target of vaccination Sunday. "We have a target of 7,000. Of these, about 1,000 will be police personnel. So far, we have vaccinated 11,700 health workers and the drive will continue simultaneously,"

Patel said though the polio vaccination drive would also kick off Sunday, the VMC will deploy workers from GMERS-run Gotri and SSG hospitals as additional staff for vaccinations, if required.

Surat

Deputy health commissioner of Surat Municipal Corporation, Dr Ashish Naik said, "We have covered over 60 per cent of healthcare workers. Sunday onwards, we are also planning to vaccinate frontline workers, comprising SMC staffers, police, revenue department, teachers, disaster management staffers, among others, which is around 45,000 beneficiaries."

2 schools told to refund 'excess fees' to students

EXPRESSNEWS SERVICE

VADODARA, JANUARY 30

THE FEE Regulation Committee (FRC) of Vadodara Saturday ordered two private schools to refund "excessive fees" amounting to Rs 63 lakh to students.

In its simultaneous order against two private schools — Global Discovery School and Saint Kabir school — located in the city, the FRC ordered that the schools must refund the excess fees allegedly charged from students in violation of the regularised fee structure submitted by the two schools.

While the Global Discovery School is said to have collected a total of Rs 36.99 lakh fees in excess from 1,516 students, Saint Kabir school is alleged to have charged a surplus Rs 26 lakh from 563 students.

Nine held for 'consuming liquor, creating nuisance'

EXPRESSNEWS SERVICE

VADODARA, JANUARY 30

NINE PERSONS have been arrested for allegedly consuming alcohol and creating nuisance at GIDC estate in Makarpura area of Vadodara city Saturday, police said.

The nine men, the police said, were allegedly found having alcohol inside a tin cabin on the premises of the company located at Makarpura GIDC estate by a patrol team.

They were allegedly also creating a nuisance.

The police rounded up the nine accused and booked them under relevant sections of the Prohibition Act and the IPC. They were later taken to the SSG Hospital for a blood test to determine the level of alcohol in the blood.

The patrol team had recovered several empty and filled liquor bottles from the spot.

VADODARA 'CUSTODIAL DEATH'

HC grants accused cop interim immunity from arrest till February 20

EXPRESSNEWS SERVICE

AHMEDABAD, JANUARY 30

AFTER A Vadodara trial court refused to grant anticipatory bail to one of the police officers accused in the alleged custodial killing of a 65-year-old migrant worker from Telangana in 2019, the accused moved Gujarat High Court with a plea seeking anticipatory bail.

In an order dated January 27, the HC granted the accused an immunity from arrest until the next date of hearing, scheduled for February 20.

The migrant worker, Babu Nisar Shaikh, was apprehended by Fatehgunj police in Vadodara on suspicion of theft on December 10, 2019, and is suspected to have been tortured to death at the Fatehgunj police station.

The anticipatory bail plea was moved by Dilipsinh Rathod, the then sub-inspector at the Fatehgunj police station, who was termed as "absconding" at the time of filing of the chargesheet.

The accused was refused anticipatory bail by the lower court primarily on grounds of his "absconding" status as well as for conducting a faulty inquiry.

Taken up for hearing on January 27 by the single-judge bench of Justice RM Sareen at the HC, the court admitted the case and further directed the accused to remain present before the investigating officer on February 4 at a specified time to record his statement with respect to the case while granting Rathod interim immunity from arrest.

"Considering the averments of the application and the record, the applicant (Rathod) is directed to remain present before the investigating officer on 04.02.2021 between 11.00 AM and 2.00 PM and the investigating officer shall record statement of the applicant on that day and shall consider the documents produced before him by the applicant, if any, but the investigating officer shall not arrest the applicant till the next date," the order states.

Advocate Imtiyazkhan Qureshi, representing the victim, present at the hearing intending to file his objections to Rathod's plea was informed that he does not have an independent locus to object but can file the same through the prosecuting agency.

Six of the accused persons in the case -- Inspector DB Gohil, Sub-Inspector DM Rabari and Lok Rakshak Dal jawans Pankaj Mavjibhai, Yogendra Jilansinh, Rajiv Savjibhai and Hitesh Shambubhai -- are in judicial custody.

AHEAD OF LOCAL BODY POLLS

Leuva, Kadva Patels meet, discuss ways to 'unify' 2 sects

EXPRESSNEWS SERVICE

SURAT, JANUARY 30

REPRESENTATIVES OF the Leuva and Kadva sects of the Patidar community met at Unjha in Mehsana district Saturday to discuss their presence in political, social and educational fields and to "unify" the two sects that have traditionally revered different deities and observed separate social customs.

The meeting comes ahead of the elections to the municipal corporations, nagar palikas, taluka panchayat and district panchayats, scheduled to be held end February.

Khodaldham Trust president

Naresh Patel and Umiyadham Trust president Manibhai Patel presided over the meeting that was attended by around 150 people from both the communities. This is possibly the first time that the leaders of the two factions have shared a stage after nearly a decade, sources said. Khodal Mata is the deity of the clan of Leuva Patels, and Umiya Mata is that of the Kadva Patels.

Naresh Patel, who is the Leuva Patel (or Patidar) community leader, said, "The Patidars are found in all sectors and in each and every village. There is no industry left without Patidars, but there is something lacking in our community and that is unity. The community's presence, however, lacking in two sectors – government jobs and politics, he said.

"When we talk about the government jobs, we wish that an officer should be a Patidar boy or girl. And in politics, we wish that our community person(s) should be there from sarpanch to members of parliament (MP). Today we are lacking in both these sectors and to discuss what steps should be taken to fill it, this meeting has been organised between both the communities. Time has come to unite both these communities and work together... I appeal to the youths of both the communities to come forward and work (toward this) and we will support them. The work should be for the betterment of the Patidar community," Naresh Patel added.

Octogenarian Manibhai Patel, the Kadva Patel community leader, said "I wish that Nareshbhai Patel and Khodaldham trustees visit our place and we visit theirs regularly. This will lead to a strong bond between both the communities. For that we should meet regularly and discuss issues where our communities are lacking and what is needed. I want to ask the Patidar community: what did we have 75 years ago? We did not even have enough money to pay the taxes of agricultural land. We were doing work by mortgaging our homes and land. The community that lived in such circumstances is now living in bungalows and driving cars. These things have not come from the sky... The Patidar community is now moving towards the direction of change. Our community is spread all over the world. With such meetings, we will work out where both the communities are lacking."

The meeting was attended by industrialists, educationalist, and social workers from Leuva and Kadva sects. Patidar Anamat Andolan Samithi convenors Alpesh Katheriya and Dharmik Malaviya, and Sardar Patel Group (SPG) president Lalji Patel were among the others present at the event.
